

Sanskriti - Prabha Dutt Fellowship

Sanskriti - Prabha Dutt Fellowship encourages young women journalists who wish to investigate and research on any topic of contemporary relevance. This fellowship is given every year. The fellows may work on a book or monograph for subsequent publication within the given time frame. The fellowship program runs for 10 months and the fellows are paid a grant of INR 1,00,000. The work can be executed in Hindi, English or any Regional Language.

Eligibility –

To be eligible, the applicant must:

- Be a female candidate
- Be an Indian national
- Be in the age group of 25–40
- Be a print journalist

Steps for Application –

- Register: <http://www.sanskritifoundation.org/Geddes-Fellowship.htm>
- Read the instructions carefully and prepare a two-page CV, proposal and 5 published work samples.
- Send the names and contact addresses/telephones of two referees.
- Send the application, bearing the title ‘Sanskriti – Prabha Dutt Scholarship’ on the envelope, to the below address:
Sanskriti Foundation
C-11, Qutab Institutional Area
New Delhi-110 016
- Alternatively, the applications can be sent by email to:
fellowships@sanskritifoundation.org

Benefits –

The selected fellows will receive a scholarship worth INR 1 Lakh -

- The first instalment will be given at the time of commencement of the fellowship.
- The second instalment will be given at the time of submission of the complete project.

Official Website: <http://www.sanskritifoundation.org/Geddes-Fellowship.htm>

Email: fellowships@sanskritifoundation.org | Phone No. +91 11 2696 3226